- I know how to implement a variety of contrasting elements in the positive and negative space.
- I can create an "Edition" that demonstrates successful printmaking techniques.
- Participate in an art studio
- Revise my artwork based on feedback
- Reflect on my artwork
- Analyze artwork

Originality and Plagiarism

Originality and creativity are important components of this course. Students will not make direct use of another artist's work and call it their own; this violates copyright laws and is plagiarism, and will result in an automatic failure for the project, and possibly the class. Students are encouraged to work only from personal photographs that they themselves have taken. Other artist's work may be used as reference for personal artwork, but the work being referenced should be altered to such a degree that the original artist's intent is in no way recognizable in the student's work. Copying and/or duplicating of another artist work and calling it your own is cheating and fraudulent, and is not permissible in this course.

BE ORIGINAL

Part One: selection of your topic

1. Come up with a list of 15 topics/concepts for your print: Personal Voice, Hobbies, Music, Movie, Etc. (Be Original)

Once your list is complete select (highlight) your 4 favorites.

Select 2 from your 4 highlights and create a list of associated imagery & text ideas. Please place these ideas into your sketchbook.

Part Two: Revisions

On Wednesday, you will bring in your 2 sketches completed and as a group we will critique/analyzes them for feedback and revision. Also bring in any reference images that you are using to show.

Revise 1: Due Thursday

You will revise one composition from the suggestions.

Part Three: Final Drawing

You will show your instructor your final composition for your block. After defining the reverse image, you will receive your block to transfer your design.

Carving will start on Thursday and Friday

Printing will be Monday - Wednesday
